D3 5000 + K1&K2

Vitamin D + K for Cardiovascular & Bone Health*

5042 60 LIQUID CAPSULES

Vitamins D and K play synergistic roles in calcium metabolism and these vitamins are essential for maintaining bone, cardiovascular, immune, and mood health. Vitamin D inadequacy affects a large portion of the population, especially those with limited sun exposure, darker skin, older age, or those living in northern latitudes. While vitamin K1 is found in leafy greens, K2 is less prevalent in the typical diet and may be especially low in individuals taking common medications. Because vitamins D and K work in concert, their combined inadequacy increases health risks. Boron, with its roles in vitamin D metabolism and bone health, provides added synergies.*
